ELT: proofreading

Sophie sent her friend Lily a letter about the art competition, but there is a mistake in each numbered line. Underline the mistakes with a ruler and write the corrections above the mistakes. Follow the example.

e.g. Dear lily. (Lily)

1. It was our school's art competition yesterday. I am so excited when I
2. arrived at the art studio. The room were full of students from different grade
3. levels. Everyone bring their own materials like crayons, paint and marker. I am
4. good at draw sunsets with bright colors and soft clouds, so I started painting
5. the sky. My friend Ryan decided to draws mountains.
6. The theme was "Nature Around Us," which was an great idea. I was painting
7. happily until my brush slipped across the sun. I didn't panic and tryed to turn it into something new. I added swirls of color and drew a rainbow cloud.
8. When the teacher said time was up, we stopped working. We placed their
9. artwork on a table for the judge to see. There were forests, animal, flowers, and oceans in every direction. Ryan won second prize, and I was shocked to get
10. first. I learn that sometimes mistakes can lead to something beatiful.

Love,
Sophie
